

Gump City Con Official Cosplay Contest Summary

Rules are posted online on the website at www.gumpcitycon.com/cosplay2018live and additional details (if applicable) will be released closer to the show.

Pre-registration IS REQUIRED by 4pm with the cosplay guests (Martha Howard / Little Red Fox Cosplay - Organizer) at their booths the day of the event!

Broken into categories:

Children (12 and under)

Adult (13 and older, individual, all skill levels)

Groups (all ages and skill levels, 2 or more people)

Prejudging Criteria:

All done with cosplay guests at their booths at entry/sign-up throughout the day by 4pm before the contest.

Judges can be rotated in and out of prejudging as needed, one main judge required to be present at each prejudging

Contestants should be in costume and be prepared to talk about construction. Reference pictures are not required, but are encouraged especially for more obscure cosplays. If the contestant is modeling a costume, the maker should be present to answer at prejudging, and the maker is the contestant, not the model.

1. Percentage of the costume that is handmade
2. Attention to detail
3. Quality
4. Overall appearance
5. Likeness to the character
6. Maneuverability / functionality
7. Stage presence / crowd appeal

Judges:

5 main judges & organizer to sit in at the contest – cosplay guests

Additional prejudging judges may be pulled as needed per cosplay guests' needs

Contest:

Begins on the Main Stage at 5pm on Saturday – all entries in any category

Go by groups:

Judges have reference pictures (where applicable) as well as prejudging notes and score. The prejudging score is the score used to determine the winner. Official judges make an additional judges choice award.

Photographer takes shots of each contestant as they take their turn on stage.
